PARENT BREAKFAST CHATS

Background and Dates & Anticipated Topics for the 2011-12 School Year

Each month, Mr. Bold sends a “Stakeholder Update” report regarding our school’s effort toward continuous school improvement. During the 2011-12 School Year, Kennedy will again host parent “BREAKFAST CHATS”. These chats are intended to have casual discussion and dialogue focused on positive efforts of our school while also strengthening support for our school as we aim to accomplish a sense of a Professional Learning Community. The plan is to start the Breakfast Chats at or around 7:15 in the Gold IMC with a special Student Recognition “FISH” Celebration, with the “Chat to follow immediately afterwards. Below is the schedule for the Breakfast Chats for the year:

- Qtr. 1 – Thursday, October 20, 2011
- Qtr. 2 – Wednesday, January 18, 2012
- Qtr. 3 – Wednesday, March 21, 2012
- Qtr. 4 – Wednesday, May 16, 2012

The Topics for the meetings have not yet been confirmed, however, we are considering these topics for this year’s Parent Breakfast Chats:

- Qtr. 1 - MAPS Assessment, Understanding Parent Reports.*
- Qtr. 2 - Homework/Grading & Organizational Strategies*
- Qtr. 3 - Brain-Based Learning*
- Qtr. 4 - Internet Safety (Presented by TBD)*

Please consider joining us to celebrate the accomplishments of our students and to join us for the Parent Breakfast Chat which will immediately follow the Student Recognition event.

The Village and Town of Germantown, the Village of Richfield, Town of Polk, and Town of Jackson are served by the dedicated Germantown School District staff. Students receive outstanding educational opportunities through the district’s six schools which include: Amy Belle Elementary, County Line Elementary, MacArthur Elementary, Rockfield Elementary, Kennedy Middle School and Germantown High School. The district’s rigorous curriculum, led by highly skilled faculty and staff, is complemented by specialized programs and co-curricular activities that empower and inspire every student to success.
