

GERMANTOWN HIGH SCHOOL
ANNOUNCEMENTS: WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 11, 2017

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible with liberty and justice for all.

- Attention student drivers: The GHS office has received complaints from local businesses regarding students parking in their lots without permission. Students who park on private property without permission risk having their vehicle towed by the owner of that property. Do not park in the lots of local businesses unless you have permission to do so. Students who park in the GHS lots without a valid parking tag will be cited by SRO Olson.
- Family athletic passes that were purchased at the beginning of the school year are available for pick up in the activities office. Please stop down in between classes or during lunch.
- If you are going to be trying out for the Boys Basketball Team, please stop in today and have your travel gear sized with Mr. Martin in room 225. If you were sized at an open gym, you are all set. For questions, please see Mr. Martin or Mr. Baumann.
- The library is closed today during periods 1 through 5 for PSAT testing.
- Attention Freshman: please stop in Mrs. Hoy's room, 130, to pick up your fundraising materials!
- There will be an Environmental Club meeting today after school in room 143. Please see Mr. McClellan or Mrs. Suprenand if you cannot attend to get the Google Classroom code. See you tomorrow!
- There will be no Skills USA meeting today. We will meet next week Wednesday October 18th. Please see Mr. Mehring, Ms. Seramur or Mr. Stachowiak if you have any questions.
- There will be no Men's Choir this week. We will meet again starting in November. Chamber Choir will happen at its' regular time today.
- Attention concerned citizens of GHS! Cups of Controversy will have its first Leadership Meeting tomorrow, October 12th, before school at 6:45am in Mr. Whitehead's Room, 222. We will decide on our first topic for the year, and discuss future topics as well. If you wish to be involved in topic selection or research, be sure to attend!
- If you follow the news, you should learn out about Model UN. Students interested in representing GHS in the Wisconsin High School Model United Nations should plan to attend a meeting tomorrow before school at 6:45 in room 201. Representatives will spend 2 days at UW-Milwaukee working with several hundred other high school students from around the state. The team will be limited to 7 students, so we need motivated and passionate representatives. If you cannot attend, see Mr. Johnson this week in room 201 or in the testing center after school.

- Attention world travelers! If you are interested in traveling to Costa Rica and have already attended a meeting, your application is due on October 15th. Please complete your application online. See Miss Baranowski in room 304 with questions!
- We need Bowlers! Tryouts for the GHS Bowling Club are on Sunday, October 15th at 7:00 pm at Classic Lanes in Menomonee Falls. Just 3 games are necessary for tryouts. Flyers with more information available in the Activities Office.
- Are you tired of seeing negativity/unkindness? Do you want to make a positive difference in our school? If so then you should come check out the Kindness Krew. Mrs. Mueller and Ms. Kaebisch are looking for like-minded students to join this group in order to spread kindness and positivity around GHS. Our first Meeting is on Tuesday, October 24th at 2:30 PM in Room 155. Stop in the Counseling Office with any questions.
- Any Junior or Senior who has lettered in a varsity sport and is interested in being part of the Gtown Student-Athletes Leadership Team, or SALT, should stop by the activities office to pick up an application. Applications are due back by Friday, October 27.
- This week's School Of The Week is the University of Iowa brought to you by Mrs. GW. Located 4 hours from Germantown in Iowa City, Iowa, the University of Iowa is a Big Ten School with a small town atmosphere. Iowa has world renowned Writer's Workshop and one of the top Speech Pathology and Physician Assistant programs in the country. Other Top 25 programs include Biology, Business Administration, Hospital Administration, Pharmacy, Biomedical Research, Engineering and the School of Law.
