ANNOUNCEMENTS: THURSDAY, DECEMBER 7, 2017

Pearl Harbor Anniversary Special Announcement:

Seventy-six years ago today, on December 7, 1941, at 7:55 A.M. local time, Japanese carrier-based aircraft swept in without warning over Oahu, Hawaii and attacked the bulk of the U.S. Pacific fleet, which was moored at Pearl Harbor. Nineteen U.S. naval vessels, including eight battleships, were sunk or severely damaged; 188 U.S. aircraft were destroyed. Military casualties included 2,280 killed and 1,109 wounded. In addition, 68 civilians were killed. The devastating surprise attack on Oahu compelled the United States into an unprecedented world conflict, galvanizing all sides for a long, cruel war. On December 8, 1941, the United States declared war on Japan. On this anniversary of the tragic events at Pearl Harbor, let us remember those who lost their lives on December 7, 1941, and those who were lost in the Second World War. The war in the Pacific challenged the resolve, ingenuity, and moral compass of every citizen and soldier. The events deeply changed the world socially, geopolitically, environmentally, and militarily. Today's anniversary reminds us to acknowledge and appreciate all the members of the United States armed forces who have lost their lives while fighting to preserve the many freedoms we all enjoy today.

At this time, I ask that you please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance.

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible with liberty and justice for all.

- Remember Mathletes, the Wisconsin MAA test will be today at 2:30 PM in room 235. Don't forget to bring your graphing calculators!
- Best Buddies: plan to attend our Crafts and Cookies Party after school on Mon., Dec. 11. We will be decorating cookies and snowflakes and playing games. Hope to see you there!
- Donation Opportunities:
 - Key Club needs new, unwrapped toys for their Toy Drive sponsored by Kapco's Kids2Kids Christmas. Drop off donations this week during your lunch hours.
 - Peanut butter needed! The Senior Writing and Communications class is collecting peanut butter for various homeless shelters and food pantries. Drop off jars in room 104 during the month of December.
 - Spanish Honor Society is collecting new or used reading glasses, prescription glasses and sunglasses during December and January for VOSH, an organization of local eye doctors that travel to Dominican Republic to treat rural areas. Drop off in room 307 or the Main Office.

➤ From the Counseling Office:

- A representative from Bryant and Stratton will be here today at 11:15 AM. Please stop in the Counseling Office for a college visit pass.

TODAY'S MENU: Pizzaburger or Chicken Alfredo or 3 Hard Shell or 2 Soft Shell Tacos; Fresh Garden Bar, Garlic Bread, Green Beans, Chilled Applesauce, Strawberry Craisins, Cotton Candy Ice Cream Bar

- Who likes peanut butter?! Then please donate it!! Mrs. Zvit and Mr. Stuve's Senior Writing and Communication class is collecting jars of peanut butter. For the month of December, your donated jars of peanut butter will be collected for various homeless shelters and food pantries. Statistics show that peanut butter is the NUMBER ONE item requested because it is a great source of protein, is affordable, and has a long shelf life. PLEASE PLEASE PLEASE consider donating any and all peanut butter you buy to Room 104 until the end of December. Thank you so much!!
- Spanish Honor Society will be collecting new or used reading glasses, prescription glasses and sunglasses during December and January for the VOSH organization. VOSH is an organization of local eye doctors that travel to Dominican Republic to treat rural areas with free eye exams and medical care. For many of these poor residents, it is their first time they ever receive an eye exam and they wait in line for hours just to see the doctors and get their free glasses or treatment! If you would like to donate, bring glasses to Spanish Rm 307 or the collection box in the main office. ¡Gracias!
- The following Honors American History students were recognized by Germantown's VFW Post #9202, for their submissions to the "Voice of Democracy" scholarship audio essay contest. This year's theme was "American History: Our Hope for the Future." James Blodgett received top honors, a $500 scholarship, and will advance to the next level of competition. Alyssa Cramer received 2nd place, and a $400 scholarship. Honorable mention awards were given to: Ally Ballard, Karissa Brown, Ella Mudge, Katie Pampuch, and Diya Patel. Congratulations, and thank you for recognizing the service and sacrifice of our nation's veterans.
