Dance Behavior Rules

We expect students to exercise self-discipline and make good choices. However, when student conduct does not comply with building policy or the law, appropriate action will be taken. Appropriate action may include a verbal warning, parent notification, expulsion from the dance, and/or police referral.

Some of the offenses that result in disciplinary action include the following:

- Insubordination-Refusal to follow directions from school personnel
- Obscenity-Vulgar acts including verbal or physical statements written or displayed on clothing; the use of insulting, vulgar, abusive, profane or irreverent language
- Defacing property
- Refusal to follow the rules/regulations as determined by the administration

Offences that will result in automatic expulsion, parent/guardian notification and/or police referral include, but are not limited to:

- Vandalism
- Threatening or actual violence or physical force directed toward a chaperone, school personnel, building personnel, or student
- Theft or unauthorized possession of property
- Possession, sale, consumption and/or use of marijuana, narcotics, alcohol or controlled substances
- Possession of a weapon, firearm or facsimile
- Conduct which endangers the health, property or safety of others or his or her own person
- Possession or use of tobacco products
- Disrupting the ability of school authorities to maintain order
