

OCTOBER STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Ariane Amor Consigna (Business Education), Zach Heron (Mathematics), Melissa Tacke (Art), Michaela Haensgen (Physical Education)

Not pictured:

Jordan Freiberg (English), Ben Chitwood (Music) and Jasvir Sodhir (Technology Education)

On Thursday, November, 2018, Germantown High School recognized eleven students for the October "Student of the Month" initiative and breakfast. These students were nominated by a teacher in one of the departments listed below and that teacher then attended the breakfast and presented the reasons for the nomination. The criteria used for selection is: 1) the student goes above and beyond within the classroom, 2) the student has shown dramatic improvement in the classroom and 3) the student has earned a high academic achievement. Parents, the student, and their teacher attend this breakfast held before school each month.

Germantown High School is proud to present this month's recipients:

L-R:

Blake Martin (Social Studies), Haley Lauritsen (Science), Brooke Crocker (Family/Consumer Sciences), Bethany Geiter (World Languages),