- ▶ Red flags:

  - ▶ Unsolicited scholarship offers from individuals/organizations you did not contact
  - ▶ Fees
  - ▶ Limited time offers - “now or never”
  - ▶ Requests for very personal information
    - ▶ Example: Social security numbers—if you are awarded a scholarship, you may need to provide it, but you shouldn’t just to apply
  - ▶ No eligibility requirements
  - ▶ No way to contact the scholarship provider

GENERAL SCHOLARSHIP CONSIDERATIONS

- ▶ Don't reuse essays from other applications
  - ▶ Take the time to write new essays that address the question(s) being asked

GENERAL SCHOLARSHIP CONSIDERATIONS

- ▶ Do some research into the scholarship organization
  - ▶ Can you match your goals to those of the organization?
