

SEPTEMBER STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

On Thursday, October 25, 2018, Germantown High School recognized eleven students for the September "Student of the Month" initiative and breakfast. These students were nominated by a teacher in one of the departments listed below and that teacher then attended the breakfast and presented the reasons for the nomination. The criteria used for selection is: 1) the student goes above and beyond within the classroom, 2) the student has shown dramatic improvement in the classroom and 3) the student has earned a high academic achievement. Parents, the student, and their teacher attend this breakfast held before school each month.

Germantown High School is proud to present this month's recipients:

L-R:

Back row: Isaiah Mudge (Music Education),

Ian Nilles (Business Education), Adam McCann (Technology Education), Erin Briggs (Art), Samantha Mahlum (Social Studies), Alexandra Owens (Science)

Front row: Nathan Downer (English), Ella Mudge (World Languages), Shree Dudhat (Mathematics), Ronald Recore, IV (Physical Education)

Not pictured: Jayda Nau (Family/Consumer Sciences)